Where You Should Stay in 2015 – Best New Hotels of the Past Year

By DAVID JEFFERYS & DEBBIE STRONG | JANUARY 1 2015

The Dean, Providence, RI

What? Old school cool meets modern, masculine freshness at this boutique hotel designed by Ari Heckman of ASH NYC. With its smart, ultramodern décor (with unique antique furniture scattered throughout), you'd never know the building formerly housed a strip club and music venue, among other businesses.

Get me there now! The Dean is a few hours' drive from New York City, but there's T.F. Green Airport just six miles south as well as plenty of rail travel making its way through Providence daily.
